The following Act pass'd the General Court at their Sessions in March, 1750.

(The Preamble is omitted.)

BE it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governour, Council, and House of Representatives, That it shall not be lawful for any Person within this Government, from and after the 31*st* Day of March, 1750, to receive, take or pay any of the following Coin at any greater or higher Rate than is allow'd by this Act. viz. A Guinea at 28*s*, an English Crown at 6*s*8, an English Half Crown at 3*s*4, an English Shilling at 1*s*4, an English Six Pence at 8*d*.

a double Johannes, or Gold Coin of Portugal, of the Value of £3 12*s* sterling, at £4 16*s*, a single Johannes of the Value of 36*s* sterling at £2 8*s*, a Moydore at 36*s*, a Pistole of full Weight at 22*s*, three English Farthings for 1*d*. and English Half-Pence, in greater or less Numbers, in Proportion.

And be it further enacted, That if any Person within this Government, shall, after the 31*st* Day of March 1750, for the Discharge of any Contract or Bargain, account, receive, take, or pay any of the several Species of Coins before-mentioned, at any greater or higher Rate than at which the ſame is hereby regulated, ſettled and allowed to be accounted, received, taken or paid; every Perſon ſo accounting, receiving, taking or paying the ſame contrary to the Directions herein contained, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds for every ſuch Offence. ---

Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That nothing in this Act ſhall be underſtood to reſtrain any Perſon or Perſons from accounting, receiving, taking or paying any of the abovementioned Species or Coins in diſcharge of any Debts, Contracts or Bargains made before the 31*ſt* Day of March 1750, at the following Rates, viz. For any Debt contracted before the said 31*st* Day of March, and underſtood to be payable in Bills of the old Tenor in ſuch Proportion higher or greater than the Rates ſet at in this Act, as 45*s* is to 6*s*; and for any Debt contracted before the ſaid 31*st* Day of March, and underſtood to be payable in Bills of the middle Tenor, or Bills of the new Tenor, in ſuch Proportion higher or greater than the Rates ſet at in this Act, as 11/3 is to 6*s*; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.
